Columbus, Ohio Celebration (in partial)

A minute of silence in memory of the martyrs who were the fallen heroes and heroines during the past Forty years of the bitter and arduous struggle, was observed by thousands of audience that converged from the above cited cities and their environs including from far flung cities of Portland and Vancouver (Canada).

A statement read out during the event enumerated the hard-won gains of equality, justice and democracy . It also called upon peace loving Ethiopians to be vigilant in view of the fact that our country is undergoing the 5th National election.

Extremist Opposition forces at home and abroad are trying to derail the renaissance of the country through their futile attempt to hold political power through commotion and resort to lawlessness and violence, color revolution and street mayhem, the statement reminisced.

The statement reiterated TPLF's longstanding commitment to stand inseparably connected with the cause of the Ethiopian people which was epitomized by the historic founding of the Ethiopian Peoples' Revolutionary Democratic Front (EPRDF) creating an auspicious condition for the struggle to intensify.

Representatives of EPRDF member organizations praised the TPLF for primarily igniting the popular struggle that has culminated in a Federal Constitutional system through the concerted sacrifice paid by all nations, nationalities and peoples of Ethiopia. Renaissance Council members and organized women gave an added color to the celebration.

Traditional bread and cake cutting ceremony was undertaken by prominent community elders members and live musical extravaganza accompanied by modern and diverse cultural and traditional songs that continued entertained the various audience until 2.00 PM after mid-night.
