

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Security & Justice for Tigrayans (SJT)
 907 T Street NW, Suite Basement
 Washington, DC 20001
 Sjte.info@gmail.com

The newly formed Executive Committee wishes to declare that the Security & Justice for Tigrayans in Ethiopia (SJTE) has been renamed Security & Justice for Tigrayans (SJT) and, to streamline and improve its global operations and position itself for future growth, is also announcing that it has adapted a new organizational structure on global level.

Our organization has adapted the new name, Security & Justice for Tigrayans (SJT), and elevated its organizational level to global level to match its new mission of advocating for the rights and wellbeing of all Tigrayans all over the world and advance its advocacy and diplomacy activities to the international arena.

With our new status, we also announce the election of respected, versatile, and experienced leaders from across the Tigrayan diaspora to our new Board of Directors.

We call on all Tigrayans and friends of Tigray to continue their invaluable support in all our endeavors.

About the SJT: This non-political, non-religious and not for profit organization is established in February 2020 to advocate for Tigrayans in Ethiopia whose human rights are grossly violated, and their very existence gravely threatened.
